

FOR IMMEDIATE PRESS RELEASE

Team 1122 Makes Room For One More

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 6, 2007 – 1122 Productions, Inc. today announces the addition of a new junior executive to its core management team.

“Our business is growing by leaps and bounds”, states Ricky Eanes, Co-President and Co-Founder of the company. “This personnel addition allows us to put ourselves in a good position for future growth in the markets we participate in. Rather than bringing in an experienced veteran who will simply rehash all of the same ideas we’ve heard for years, we decided that we’d rather grow organically and bring in some fresh blood with new ideas. Our executive team has doubled since the founding of the company, and we’d like to be able to train and develop our new hire over a considerable amount of time and not rush him or her.”

Tammy Eanes, Co-Vice-President and by no coincidence wife of Ricky Eanes, added “When Ricky had the idea of telling Brandon and Kelly that we were having a baby by issuing a press release, I thought it was the dumbest idea ever. I stand by that statement”.

1122 Productions plans for the new hire to start in January of 2008.
